Bungalow, Bahia Vik

José Ignacio, Uruguay

"The Bahia Vik hotel, located on the sparsely populated eastern coast of Uruguay, draws design inspiration from the area's ramshackle cabanas—and throws in a modernist twist. Though it has ten suites, 11 stand-alone villas, and a cool luxury, its greatest feature is the surf right on your doorstep. Definitely ran over these dunes for a post-breakfast swim in the Atlantic." —Paul Brady
