

PureWow

8 Resorts Built Directly on Vineyards (So You Can Keep Your Buzz Going All Vacation Long)

By DAN KODAY | NOV. 20, 2017

If your dream vacay is anywhere with a glass of wine and a nice view, then we'll see your vacation and raise you this: vacationing on a vineyard. We know, it's basically your perfect getaway on steroids. At each of these exquisite properties, the luxury of sophisticated hospitality is combined with unparalleled views of the vines and a one-of-a-kind experience fit for an oenophile. (Another pour, please. We're not driving.)

VIK CHILE (MILLAHUE, CHILE)

At this Chilean destination, you'll find a luxe, spaceship-like hotel full of contemporary art that backs up to an expansive 10,000-plus acres of natural splendor. All of the well-appointed guest rooms have floor-to-ceiling windows to show off the impressive views over the Vina Vik Vineyard—which is focused on producing holistic, organic-style wines—or of the nearby Colchagua Valley, mountains and lake.